Compilation filing to comply with the Administrative Procedures Act. R. 1.2(a) amendment changes the minimum price of bingo cards from $0.25 to $0.05 and allows Class B and Class C halls to set a specific percentage payout on certain games or sets of games until they reach Class A status, at which time they would have to go back to listing prize amounts for each game on their programs. R. 2.3(d) amendment changes maximum number of tickets and maximum prize per deal. Rule 3.1 amendment increases the maximum number of machines from ten to fifteen and allows audit copies to be in an electronic format. It also removes the requirement that the report give total numbers of winner and losers for each machine. R. 4.3(i) amendment prevents a machine from playing when there is insufficient space on the electronic file to input data. R. 4.3(j) amendment changes the amount of time that an original ticket voucher and copy must remain legible from five to three years. R. 4.4(c) amendment allows quick connects with consequences if disconnected.
